Under the terms of the joint administration order as amended:

- (1) all documents except those expressly identified below must be docketed under case no. 04-60600 and captioned as directed by the joint administration order as amended;
- (2) EXCEPTIONS: The following documents should be filed and docketed to the particular case to which they apply:
 - (a) the filing of all schedules, statements and declarations by the respective debtors;
 - (b) the filing of monthly operating reports by the respective debtors; and
 - (c) the filing of proofs of claim by creditors and proofs of interest by equity security holders;
 - (d) any objections filed to such proofs of claim or interest.

Since, under electronic filing, each party-in-interest is directly docketing matters to the dockets of these cases upon filing, please exercise care to upload your documents in the correct case and with the correct caption pursuant to the amended joint administration order.
